

	NCCCO FOUNDATION
	SIXTH ANNUAL INDUSTRY FORUM ON PERSONNEL QUALIFICATIONS
	NOVEMBER 11, 2021
SESSION 12	PANEL DISCUSSION
	DIRECTORY OF QUESTIONS ASKED BY ATTENDEES
Time Stamp
00:44	How do you ensure that a test in a language other than English is equivalent to the original?
	Respondent: Vijay Krishna, ANSI National Accreditation Board
04:50	Does NCCCO have demographic data from candidates who failed the written exam?
	Respondent: Robert Mahlman, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators
05:31	In the candidate demographic study did you see a difference between performance on the core vs. specialty exams?
	Respondent: Robert Mahlman, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators
06:25	How do you ensure the validity and reliability of the new remote online testing process?
	Respondents: Thom Sickelsteel, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators Vijay Krishna, ANSI National Accreditation Board
10:00	If someone wants to set up a training and test center does NCCCO have resources available to assist?
	Respondent: John Zarian, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators
11:00	What is the potential for virtual reality in testing?
	Respondent: Zack Parnell, Industrial Training International (ITI)
13:30	Will the transition to tablet-based testing in the practical exam result in quicker test results?
	Respondent: Thom Sickelsteel, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators